

Broadway World.com

Green Light Productions Presents GLO 2008 July 16, 2008

Featuring inspiring new plays written and directed by women

<http://www.broadwayworld.com/off-off-broadway/article/GLO-2008-is-July-16th20th-20080701>

July 16th-20th at Theatre 54@ Shetler Studios Please RSVP at 215-681-0211 or at glo@greenlightplays.com You are also invited to join us for a reception at the theatre immediately following the Friday night performance

GLO, created in 2005, provides great opportunities to women theatre artists. Each year, Green Light opens its doors and receives hundreds of submissions from playwrights all over the country. The GLO plays tell unique and provocative stories and are powerful examples of the work being created by women theatre artists today.

GLO 2008 Performance Info At Theatre 54 @ Shetler Studios- 244 W. 54th Street, 12th Floor
July 16th- 20th Tickets are $15 in advance at www.greenlightplays.com and $20 cash-only at the door Wednesday and Thursday at 7pm, Friday and Saturday at 8pm and Sunday at 3pm A reception at the theatre will follow the Friday night performance

GLO 2008 Plays The Opal Show by Kim Carney. Directed by Michele Pace. Featuring Allison Walton and Rob Alicea.

Who Gives This Woman by Linda Suzuki. Directed by Natasha Lee Martin. Featuring Monica Cortez and Sherry Lorraine.

Militia Slumber Party, or Embracing the New World Order by Crystal Jackson. Directed by Shauna Horn. Featuring Phil E. Eichinger, Tom Lacey and Michael Sadler.

Maggie Misplaced by Alexandria Dilks Pandola. Directed by Shannon Fillion. Featuring Becca Schneider and Scott Troost.

Green Light Productions is a 501(c)3 nonprofit institution that is dedicated to exploring the role of women in society and creating new opportunities for women theatre artists. Founded in 2003, Green Light has presented the new work of over one-hundred women theatre artists and history is an amazing collection of premieres that feature non-stereotypical portrayals of women.